

Dear FCC, The Air 1 translator in the Phoenix area services thousands of God-fearing people. This station is a light in the darkness, standing for morality and giving encouragement to many people. The community needs this station to have something different than the mainstream stations. Please let them stay on. God Bless.